REGULATORY ALERTS

Summarising crucial developments in insurance regulation, legislation, supervision and premium taxation

Axco Regulatory Alerts deliver monthly email updates on recent and proposed developments in regulation, legislation, supervision and premium taxation in over 170 territories across the globe. Written and verified by Axco's specialist consultant writers and in-house team of research analysts, the alerts draw on the most recent Insurance Market Report republications and updates, summarising changes and proposed changes in insurance compliance.

Regulatory Alerts are designed to provide Axco subscribers with timely and reliable updates on developments in global compliance with the utmost convenience. All Regulatory Alerts subscribers also have access to an online archive containing historical alerts dating back to 2005. The service includes information on both non-life and life and benefits markets and covers all territories included in Axco's Insurance Market Reports.

Key Benefits

1. Deliver monthly updates directly to subscribers and provide access to Axco's online archive of alerts
2. Keep subscribers up to date with crucial developments in compliance, regulation, taxation and legislation
3. Cover both non-life and life markets for over 170 territories

"Regulatory Alerts form a useful addition to any Axco subscription and help to build a comprehensive picture of insurance compliance conditions across the globe."

10 REGULATORY ALERTS

Monthly email alerts

Regulatory Alerts are delivered on a monthly basis through an email service which alerts subscribers to the territories that have been updated. Users can follow a link to access the information online, where an overview of all updates for the current month is presented by territory and topic.

Subscribers can easily switch between non-life and life and benefits market sectors, and alerts can be viewed by territory or by month of occurrence, as users can select to view all key global regulatory developments dating back to January 2005.

All alerts are presented in a consistent format and categorised under key topic headings, including:

- Legislation
- Regulation
- Supervision
- Taxation
- International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRSs)
- Court Rulings
- Natural Catastrophes
- Risk Modelling
- Social Security
- Pensions
- Healthcare

Access to the Axco Regulatory Alerts archive

Subscriptions to Regulatory Alerts also include access to Axco's online archive of alerts, which dates back to 2005 for most territories. Using the archive, subscribers can quickly and easily view the key regulatory, legislative, supervisory, and taxation developments that have occurred in any given market in preceding years.

A list of the most recently updated territories is presented alongside the archived information and subscribers can also follow a link to the full Axco Insurance Market Report for a more comprehensive market overview.

Reliable compliance information on a global scale

Axco's specialist consultant writers and dedicated in-house team of research analysts report, verify and summarise market intelligence to ensure that Regulatory Alerts provide a comprehensive and up-to-date reference point for actual and projected changes in global insurance compliance on a monthly basis.

Regulatory Alerts draw on the most recent Insurance Market Report republications and updates, which cover over 170 territories. The alerts also report on changes effected by supranational bodies such as the European Union (EU) and Conference Interafricaine des Marches d'Assurances (CIMA), and developments in international life territories and the London and Bermudian markets.

Time-saving efficiencies

Regulatory Alerts subscribers receive the most convenient, accurate and comprehensive updates available on major developments in insurance compliance across the globe.

Direct access to regularly updated information on legislation, regulation, supervision and taxation worldwide saves time and resources and also helps to keep insurance professionals up to date with developments in those markets in which they already operate or are looking to do business.
